TRAVEL AND ACCOMMODATION

Art. 30 – Semi-finalists and finalists who don't come from border countries of France will be reimbursed 50 % of their travelling expenses up to maximum 500 €, on presentation of written proof. The Competition may provide some scholarships for candidates who have difficulties in financing their travelling expenses. The latter will have to make a request to the Competition.

Art. 31 – The Competition will arrange free accommodation for candidates who request it, subject to availability, with families. These families cannot also provide accommodation for relatives or friends of the candidates. Partnerships with hotels will allow the Competition to propose special rates.

Semi-finalists and finalists will be provided free accommodations.

CONDITIONS GENERALES

Art. 32 - The candidates must be present at the days and hours mentioned on the notification to attend, unless prevented from doing so by illness or accident (musical execution and interviews).

Art. 33 - Laureates must personally attend the prize-giving ceremony. Should the laureates be absent, they will lose their prizes and awards, with the exception of illness, accidents or a major crisis.

Art. 34 – Laureates are required to take part in the closing concert arranged by the Competition. Candidates cannot lay claim to remuneration. Likewise, rehearsals and public rounds will not give rise to the payment of artists' fees.

Art. 35 – Art. 35 – Cession of rights

The performances can be recorded. Photographs and articles may be published.

By participating in the competition, the candidates and their piano accompanist cede to the Competition the right to record, reproduce, and arrange for the reproduction of their performances (Competition and concerts) on all existing or future medium, as well as the right to broadcast their performances by any radio, television, or internet means in France or abroad.

Art. 36 – During the auditions, the semi-final and final, candidates may be solicited by the press and be requested for photographic sessions. The Competition will inform the candidates of the dates and places of meeting.

Art. 37 – The candidates will dress appropriately for the rounds and ceremonies.

Art. 38 – The dates of rounds can be modified. The candidates who are concerned by modifications will be informed as soon as possible.
